

Product EOL Announcement

Summary

The product end of life (EOL) announcement signifies the final phase of the CommuniGate product life cycle and serves as advanced notice that both distribution and support for the software listed in this notice are ending.

CommuniGate Systems is announcing EOL for the following list of products with the intent to discontinue availability and support.

Product	Version	Description
CommuniGate Pro	6.2.x	All Releases

EOL Timeline

For reference, CommuniGate Systems will discontinue distribution of and technical support for the products listed above based on the following schedule.

Product	Version	Last Day of Distribution and Support
CommuniGate Pro	6.2.x	1-November-2021

Updated Software

We encourage you to reach out to our team (contact information below) regarding the status of your license and to consider upgrading to the latest supported release of the CommuniGate Pro software.

This not only ensures optimal care, but prior versions may not have updated/secure protocol support. Certain public exploits have become known to old versions of SSL and other technologies.
