Criminal Conviction Declaration

NMIT is committed to safeguarding all stakeholders including learners and staff. NMIT requires that all applicants declare any criminal convictions they have. NMIT acknowledges that some convictions do not need to be disclosed by virtue of the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004. For more information about when the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 scheme applies please refer to: justice.govt.nz/criminal-records/clean-slate. Completion of this application form constitutes consent to NMIT carrying out a criminal history check with the New Zealand Police. Full consideration is given to the currency and nature of the offence(s) disclosed and the severity of any penalty imposed. If an offence is disclosed you may be required to discuss the matter with a Member(s) of the NMIT Directorate. NMIT is committed to the rehabilitation of offenders where possible. The focus of the discussion will be to provide support and assess the potential for pathways to learning at NMIT.

As the New Zealand Police Vetting Service Request and Consent Form can take up to 6 weeks to process, we ask that you complete this form to enable us to continue with the application process. If you have not resided in New Zealand for the past six months, you will need to provide a Police Vetting Form from your country of origin or residence.
